

Lafayette Genealogical Society

The Lafayette Genealogical Society was formally organized in 1985, with a membership of 15. The Society is dedicated to collect and encourage interest in genealogy, to preserve and make available genealogical material and assist researchers in compiling material on family history.

Lafayette Genealogical Society covers the area of the original Attakapas area.

Members receive access to the “Members Only” section of the website, announcements of meetings and other items of immediate interest, and the yearly publication of “Les Memoirs,” which contains submissions from members.
